“Ryan’s Long Road to Recovery” Not Just Rugby

The combined Junior and Senior home games out at Witta Rec Club on Saturday became a day of heartfelt support for young Ryan Engle and his family, as spectators, players and families came together in a show of strength for their mate.

Raffles, cakes and food were on sale, with the colour pink dominating, as Ryan’s fave colour! It was wonderful having Herb Engle, Ryan’s dad there, and the presentation of a card and gift from the Saints u13 team to our captain for Ryan was extremely touching.

Thank you Saints for your incredible sportsmanship and mateship. Thank you Michelle Ebbage for organising the raffle and those that generously donated items - Maple Street Meats, Bupa Dental Maleny, Soap Bar Maleny, Sportspower Noosa, Gympie Farm Cheese, Michelle Ebbage Artist, Liquor Legends Maleny.

The Bushrangers Club and the Engle family has been inundated with support from throughout the Sunshine Coast Rugby Club fraternity, who have made major donations to the GoFundMe campaign to help the family with the escalating medical expenses as Ryan slowly recovers from the meningitis that saw him rushed into ICU. Meningitis is an infection of the membranes that surround the brain and spinal cord.

Huge shout out to the Maroochydore, Eumundi Dragons, USC, Flinders, Noosa Dolphins, and the Saints Rugby clubs, their support means so much to Ryan and his family.

Update: it's been a difficult transition to Brisbane for Ryan, who's struggled with being more sensitive to noise and clatter of hospital surroundings after all his brain has been through with the meningitis. It can be caused by bacteria or viruses and is a very serious disease.

Ryan's Long Road to Recovery

As of last week however, he is settling into his new routine, which involves many different therapists. He's concentrating working with Occupational Therapists and learning just to stand again.

Ryan had a difficult two days over the last weekend, with a 2 hr MRI where he had to lie very still in a confined space, and then the prospect of brain and hip surgery due to the infections still ongoing in those areas.

To find out more about meningitis visit the web site: <https://www.healthdirect.gov.au/meningitis>

Thankfully, his team of specialists have decided that his clinical observations are good and that more time is needed to allow his body to heal itself before resorting to surgery.

Please keep praying. Go Ryano, you've got this and we've got you!

Pattemore House Continues a Tradition

As well as running their dairy farms, early Maleny settlers had to produce most of their own food. The quality of their produce was displayed and judged at the local Maleny Agricultural Show – as it still is today.

At the 1932 Maleny Show, the Pattemore family won prizes in the following categories:

- Rhubarb, squashes, jam oranges, valencia oranges – JR Pattemore
- Pickles, orange marmalade, cape gooseberry jam, chutney – Mrs Stan Pattemore
- Carrots, broad beans – Stan Pattemore
- Fodder (mixed chaff) – Stan and Gilbert Pattemore
- Heaviest potatoes – Gilbert Pattemore

The Friends of Pattemore House have continued the tradition, winning the prize for Best Cumquat Jam at the 2018 Maleny Show, and at this year's Show, the coveted Best Rosella Jam!

The Friends are very proud of their win as they use all local produce, making a range of delicious home-made jams and pickles to sell via their "Pattemore's Pantry" range whenever Pattemore House is open.

If you'd like to get hold of their prize-winning Rosella Jam, and support their fund-raising efforts please be quick because rosellas are so seasonal.

You'll get a chance this Saturday 29th June from 1p.m. until 4p.m., when Pattemore House is open again to the public.

You can explore some great local history – and enjoy a scrumptious afternoon tea on their sunny veranda too.

Located in Porters Lane Maleny, there's plenty of parking and disabled access. Cost is $5 for adults, children free entry.

Why You Need A Good Conveyancer

Conveyancing is the process of transferring the ownership of property from one person to another. The paperwork and processes involved in selling a property are extremely complex and Carolyn strongly recommends that you engage the services of a properly qualified conveyancing lawyer to undertake your conveyancing work following execution of a contract of sale.

Your conveyancer will:

- Complete and lodge all relevant documents
- Search the certificate of title
- Search government departments and local authorities for anything that may affect the property such as encumbrances or caveats
- Make necessary enquiries about zoning, titles and rates (council and water)
- Adjust rates and taxes
- Liaise with the purchaser's conveyancer regarding settlement
- Ensure that all special conditions in the contract are fulfilled before settlement takes place
- Liaise with financial institutions regarding funds required to proceed to settlement
- Prepare the settlement statement
- Attend settlement on your behalf

Carolyn works from her Maleny and Caboolture offices; you can see her at either office by calling 5495 1499.

Maleny & District Men's Shed

The Men's Shed is a community-based, not for profit organization that is accessible to all men. The Shed's primary purpose is to provide a safe, friendly environment where men are able to work on meaningful projects in the company of other men and of course talk about 'blokie' stuff we also provide education sessions relating to men's health.

Shedders have a wealth of skills, hidden talents and an array of hobbies performed by members.

Great day with good company, that's what Men's Sheds are all about.

There are some very capable members in our shed and we are constantly impressed by their ability to manufacture outstanding products. Our sign makers were once again on the job putting together a sign for the MDSRC grounds.

This tricky project called for a combination of talents to produce the desired results and as usual a number of members have stepped up to assist with the sign assembly. The graphic design was created by Clive, carved by Roy, with assembly aided by Mal and Ashley.

Trade skills are not a requirement for Men's Shed as everyone has something to offer! New members are always welcome.

Men's Shed meet each Tuesday between 8am and noon at the Pioneer Village located on Bryce Lane.

Witta Tennis Club

Whistlers played at Witta against Maroochydore Phoenix. Nice weather with a bit of wind, but we had the wind work for us. We had good rallies as usual, and got points at the right time. It was a good match to finish the season. Score was 48-14 games, 8-0 sets. Team was Paula Cudmore, Brenda Warner, Donna Kuskopf and Aki Lepper. We came third but very close to the second. Well done team!

The Wildcats travelled to Nambour to play against the No Faults for the last game this season. Michelle Macaree, Jenie Riding, Sonia Douglas and Libby Howlett enjoyed some great tennis and long rallies. The No Faults were just a little too strong this time winning by 7 games. We ended up 4 points behind the division winners which just happened to be the No Faults.

Maleny Players News

Our next play reading will on Thursday June 27th at the Playhouse from 7pm. The play will be an Australian play from 1963: 'The Tower' by Hal Porter (best-known for his book The Watcher on the Cast-Iron Balcony). It is set in Hobart in the 1840s.

The colony of Van Diemen's Land was, of course, one of the notorious sites to which convicts were transported but the play is set in a genteel upper-crust household.

Rodney Haviland is a ruthless businessmen eager to work his way further up the social scale. He is building a grandiose addition to the house: a tower that will be one of the highest structures in town. Haviland returns from Sydney Town with a new wife, his third. Stepdaughter Amy, still grieving for her mother (who was wife no. 2), resents the newcomer and Haviland's adopted teenage son Edwin doesn't like her either.

The spoiled Edwin sees and knows more than he should, but is very good at concealing what he really feels. This is an almost gothic melodrama with all the stops pulled out. Beneath the polite surface and elegant trappings of the Haviland residence, there is as much evil seething as in any convict barracks.

There are parts for four males and four females.

You do not have to be a member of the Players to come and enjoy reading the plays and join in our social gathering.

Bring a small plate to share and your favourite drink or buy wine, beer or soft drinks at the bar. Tea and coffee is provided.

A gold coin donation would be appreciated please.
