MDSRC Clubhouse News

Local contractors have been hard at work at the MDSRC Clubhouse, and if you are a regular walker on the Precinct, you may have seen the slab that's been poured already.

This is the start of a storage extension for the building (with grateful thanks to the weather gods!). Maleny's 5th Light Horse Regiment were successful in obtaining funding from the Qld Government's Community Benefit Fund for these works, along with funds for the installation of a ceiling projector and drop-down screen in the clubhouse.

The storage extension will free up more space in the building, with the screen and projector also giving user groups more flexibility for their presentations.

Maleny contractors have been engaged for the works and MDSRC plans that all will be completed by the end of June.

For community groups wishing to know more regards hiring the building, please email

J.P. Services in Maleny

Justice of the Peace services are offered at the Maleny Neighbourhood Centre on Tuesdays between 9.30am and 12.30pm and on Thursdays between 12.30 pm and 2.30 pm, by a qualified Justice of the Peace.

The qualified JP is available to witness documents such as Wills, Power of Attorney, affidavits, land transfer documents and other legal documents.

The Maleny Neighbourhood Centre and the Maleny Library have worked together to ensure that the times Justice of the Peace services are offered in each place do not conflict.

This close association also means that either the Library or Maleny Neighbourhood Centre can re-direct enquiries.

Library: Monday 9AM to 1PM
Friday 1PM to 4 PM

Neighbourhood Centre Tuesday 9.30AM to 12.30PM & Thursday 12.30 to 2.30PM

People wanting to use the service do not have to make an appointment - just turn up with an ID containing a photograph.

Please ring the Maleny Neighbourhood Centre on 5499 9345 and Maleny Library on 5475 8989 for any queries

The Service is also looking for additional JPs to be part of the action on a voluntary basis.

If anyone is a JP and interested, please contact Ruth Kuss by email on: jp.malenylibrary@gmail.com

Maleny Players next Play Reading!

The next play reading will be on this Thursday 30th May at 7pm at the Playhouse Maleny Showgrounds.

Please bring a plate to share and your drinks. Drinks are also available at the bar. A gold coin donation would be appreciated. We look forward to seeing you there.

At the play reading the group will read a 1977 Irish play, Living Quarters by Brian Friel. The action takes place in a remote part of Donegal county in a house belonging to the commandant of an army base.

Commandant Frank Butler has been serving with a UN peace-keeping mission in the Middle East. He returns a hero, having risked his life to rescue wounded men under fire, and now is about to be feted by the top brass and politicians.

He could hardly be happier: promotion is now certain, he is re-united with his much younger second wife who he married just ten days before his departure.

His adult children have all returned to the family home for the celebrations. But this is a damaged family: old wounds and resentments fester beneath the superficial gaiety and the scene is set for impending catastrophe.

There is a great range of male and female parts. This will be an interesting night so get along and enjoy the reading.

Witta Wagtails have had a couple of injuries in the past few weeks; players away on holidays; and of course "Wash Outs" due to weather. It was a cool start at Eumundi but we all soon warmed up. We had an enjoyable day of tennis and a lovely lunch, however the Witta Wagtails succumbed to the skill of Eumundi Miss Gems. Thank you to Gerry Gabriel, Cynthia Garvie, Sonia Douglas and a big thank you to Sheryn

Golledge for helping us out at short notice.

The Wildcats traveled to Nambour to compete against the top team ZTA Novas. Right from the get go the scores were very close. Everybody throwing everything at their opponent. It could have gone either way. However, Annie Stewart, Stacey English, Jenie Riding and Michelle Macaree were triumphant defeating their opponent 4 sets each and 40-34 games.

Whistlers played at Witta against Ballinger Breezers. Perfect day for tennis, and we had battle on our hands. Every set took along time with many deuces each game. Everyone dived to get the balls and it looked like it'd never end. We were exhausted when we finished, but it was a great day with a good win. Score was 45-27 games, 7- 1 sets. Team was Paula Cudmore, Brenda Warner, Donna Kuskopf and Aki Lepper.

Don't Miss the Pigs!

We're sure that you will remember the fun and laughs that was had with the lively thoroughbred pig races at the Maleny Show last year.

They were so popular that they are back!

A special "Thank you" to our 2019 Maleny Show Pig Race sponsors, Maple Street Meats, Scott's Rural Services, BUPA Dental Maleny, Sommers' Fuel Supplies, Saintsational Sausages, Grant's Earthmoving, Svenson Building, Weston Earthmoving & Maleny Communications Your Local Telstra Partner.

Their generosity means that Noah's Thoroughbred Racing Pigs can return for the 2019 Show!

These pigs are raised in free range conditions, starting their race training at approximately 5-6 weeks of age. Because the pigs are "thoroughbreds" from a long line of racing pigs, they do not take long to learn their routine as these pigs are very smart and they do just love to race and have fun at the show. Besides they like their trough of milk in between races.

The Range Croquet Club - Maleny

Good weather conditions on Thursday saw entertaining play on the lawn.

Vince Carbery and Bev Sockhill paired up for two games of golf against Sally Adams and Wallace Roy beating them 7 – 3 and 7 – 5. After Vince left a threesome (une pelouse a trois) was played with Wallace scoring 7 Sally 4 and Bev 4. On lawn 2 Ken Barker played against a pair of Kath Smith and Helen Andrews scoring 17 to their 9.

On the weekend Ken played in the Queensland second division championships at Bundaberg club winning two games out of five. Bundaberg were great hosts and the tournament ran smoothly with Yuni Rowell from Southport club with a picket fence score of five wins from five games claiming the title.

On Sunday two golf threesomes were played with Wallace scoring 5 and 5, Gary Winter scoring 4 and 3, and Brenda Winter 4 and 4. In Association croquet, Stuart Craig and Kath teamed up to beat Frances Harper and Helen 7 – 6 while, in another game Nick Smith played brilliantly to score 17 to Vince's 7.

The attached photograph shows Sarah Widin and Wallace at a training session on a Saturday morning. It graphically demonstrates why many players choose to get onto the lawn before their first game in a tournament after there has been a heavy dew. Not only is it important to get a feel for the pace of the lawn, which will be slower because of the wet grass, but also the lines can indicate imperfections in the lawn, so that during the game, hopefully, a player can adjust for them.

Coaching for beginners and others is available on the lawn from 8 am to 10 am on Saturdays. These are popular sessions in a friendly, relaxed atmosphere.

Play days on the picturesque lawns at the bottom of the showground are 1.00 pm for 1.30 pm on Thursdays and Sundays.

Gondoliers in Motion!

The Maleny Singers are busy rehearsing to perfect their next production. Gilbert and Sullivan's comic operetta "The Gondoliers" tells the story of two Venetian gondoliers, Giuseppe and Marco, who are informed that due to an error of identity when they were babies, one of them is the heir to the throne of Barataria.

They are delighted with the situation and agree to share the responsibilities of governing their new kingdom until it can be certain which of them is which, but matters complicate when the Duke and Duchess of Plaza Toro reveal that their daughter, Casilda is in love with her father's attendant, Luiz.

Between Saturday 15 June 2019 6:30 PM and Sunday 23 June 2019 2:00 PM.

Ever thought about getting into Drama?

It involves CREATIVITY, SOCIAL INTERACTION, VARIETY & SELF-DEVELOPMENT.

Maleny Players, the town's long-established amateur theatre group, is keen to encourage more local residents to consider drama as a leisure activity

Getting involved in a drama group is a great way to meet people. On Sunday the 2nd June, the Maleny Players are holding a workshop and information session to stimulate interest in local drama.

Friendships form in an environment where people are having fun. But perhaps more important is the fact that you are working together on a common goal and sharing a challenge—that tends to forge strong bonds. Everyone is a valued member of the team.

At the same time, it's flexible. If you have a role (on or off-stage) in a production then obviously you have to commit to that while it lasts. But there is no obligation to be involved in any other production.

Even those who don't want to be involved in a publicly-performed production can enjoy our play-reading nights on the last Thursday of every month at 7pm at the Maleny Playhouse

The Players will soon be auditioning for their next production.

To find out more about drama then on the afternoon of Sunday June 2nd at 2p.m. visit the Maleny Playhouse which is situated just inside main entrance to Maleny Show-ground.

Maleny Players Play Reading

The next play reading will be on Thursday the 30th May at 7pm at the Playhouse Maleny Show-grounds.

At the play reading a 1977 Irish play, Living Quarters by Brian Friel will be read. The action takes place in a remote part of Donegal county in a house belonging to the commandant of an army base. Commandant Frank Butler has been serving with a UN peace-keeping mission in the Middle East.

He returns a hero, having risked his life to rescue wounded men under fire, and now is about to be feted by the top brass and politicians. He could hardly be happier: promotion is now certain, he is re-united with his much younger second wife. They married just ten days before his departure. His adult children have all returned to the family home for the celebrations.

But this is a damaged family: old wounds and resentments fester beneath the superficial gaiety and the scene is set for impending catastrophe.

There is a great range of male and female parts.

Please bring a plate to share and your drinks. Drinks are also available at the bar. A gold coin donation would be appreciated. We look forward to seeing you there.
