"Glenferna" opening a Big Success

The Governor of Qld the Honourable Paul de Jersey was visibly impressed at the great turn out last Saturday, when he arrived to officially open 'Glenferna' at the Maleny Pioneer Village. On a perfect sunny and warm winter's day, locals, dignitaries, the families of Glenferna, the volunteers who made it all happen and many more enjoyed this memorable event.

The Maleny Historical Society made sure that all of their buildings and facilities were open, allowing all to stroll through exploring the village that also provides a home for the Maleny Mens Shed, the ceremony, with Chris Brooker M.C. leading the Pioneer Ukuleles and the Blackall Range Horseless Carriage Club.

Delicious sandwiches, cakes and slices flowed, with much jolliness in the air as old friends and families reunited over morning tea. But the highlight of the day was the official opening excellent speakers through their paces. Uncle Noel of the Jinibara people gave a particularly inspiring speech that resonated with the appreciative crowd.

The Honourable Paul de Jersey spoke of the value of the preservation of Maleny's heritage in such a unique project, personally thanking and then awarding the many volunteers who made it all possible over the last three years - and making clear his enjoyment at being back in Maleny.

As manager of the lengthy restoration project, Mrs Desley Malone was rightly singled out for special mention, as was her impressive restoration team, led by local builder Ed Lawley. Leone and Brian McFarlane (pictured) donated Glenferna to the Pioneer Village and also organised the marble and rock plaque at the front of the house.

The Sunshine Coast Council made sure there was seating and shade for all, and contributed the lovely cake that was shared by all at the conclusion of this special day.

A huge thank you to photographer extraordinaire Marsha, of Marsha Fotografie, who captured the day with her wonderful photographs.

"Glenferna" officially opened at Maleny Pioneer Village

Historical Maleny residence, Glenferna was shifted to the Maleny Historical Village on the 25th May 2016. This was just the start of a transformation by volunteers from the Maleny Historical Society to retain a part of Maleny's history.

Maleny's Junior Champ Needs Your Help

Two months after his 13th birthday Ryan Engle is seriously ill. From running around a football field on the Tuesday to being in ICU in an induced coma by the Saturday with meningitis.

Ryan has represented his state in the Queensland Track and Field team for the last three years, and broken Australian records every year.

He captained last year's 150-strong Queensland team.

In 2017 he participated in the School Pacific Games in Adelaide and broke three games records. He also represented the State of Queensland for swimming.

He is also a talented rugby union player for the Sunshine Coast-based Maleny Bushrangers and in 2018 was Maleny's Junior Sportsman of the Year.

He and his family need a lot of support to cope with the medical expenses such a situation involves and a Go Fund Me campaign has already seen friends, family and Maleny community clubs making donations to help out.

the support they have received. And how awesome are the Maleny Bushrangers Junior Rugby Club and the Maleny Netball girls?

Ryan's mum Sallyann said thankfully Ryan is out of ICU now and there is talk of a transfer to Brisbane to the Queensland Rehabilitation Centre, which will mean lots of time away from work for Sally and husband Herb.

They are so touched by Both wore pink stripes at their recent games to show their support - pink being the little champs favourite colour.

The challenge is now out there to Maleny's sporting clubs to rock the pink in support of Ryan!

Please send us your "Team in Pink" photos and we'll publish in the upcoming editions.

We are all thinking of you and your family Ryan and praying for a speedy recovery.

Whistlers played at Caloundra against the Hot Chillies. Nice and warm weather, and as usual we had long rallies and lots of deuces. We were exhausted by the end, but got to bring a win back so it was a good day. Score was 45-22 games, 6-2 sets. Team was Paula Cudmore, Brenda Warner, Donna Kuskopf and Aki Lepper.

The Wildcats were at home to Coolum Tourists. It was another battle and another close one. Libby Howlett, Stacey English, Jenie Riding and Michelle Macaree fought hard but were pipped at the post. The score was 4 sets each, 36-39. With only 1 game left and 2 points separating 6 teams it's anyone's game.

The Range Croquet Club - Maleny

Noosa croquet club visited on Wednesday. Their team of John Olsen and Galena Makarovna won their singles games against Ken Barker and Nick Cram.

John beat Ken 26 -20. Galena beat Nick 17 -14. The doubles went to Maleny 21 -18 with Nick and Vince getting up in an exciting match.

Noosa won the round two games to one.

Well done.

The attached photograph shows Nick beginning a decisive break in the doubles match. At this point he rushed the yellow to hoop 2 made that hoop and then came back to the blue ball to go to hoop 3 continuing on to make another seven hoops. John and Galena are in the background.

Two players from Wynnum club, Catherine and Rod Smith, joined Helen Andrews, Bev Sockhill, Wallace Roy, Sally Adams, Gary and Brenda Winter for some games of golf. Rod and Wallace won both their games to take out the honours for the afternoon.

Kath Smith, Sarah Widin, Vince and Nick played with distinction in the Nell Hass tournament at Headland Buderim on the weekend. Sarah won her block and Nick won a bottle of wine.

It was an enjoyable, well organised tournament and everybody reported having a lot of fun - which, of course, is the way it should be.

Galena (Noosa) won the overall prize, Colin Harris (Coolum) won the first block, John Olsen (Noosa) the second, Sarah the third, and Diane Horsham (Headland Buderim) the fourth.

It is truly a tournament to be recommended to all players from beginners to experts. Many thanks to Carolyn Aldrich and her crew of helpers for being such good hosts.

Coaching for beginners and others is available on the lawn from 8 am to 10 am on Saturdays. These are popular sessions in a friendly, relaxed atmosphere.

Play days on the picturesque lawns at the bottom of the show-ground are 1.00 pm for 1.30 pm on Thursdays and Sundays.

News from Maleny Sports Park at the Precinct

The recent good weather was a bonus for the volunteers from MDSRC and local contractors who recently erected the new sign for the MDSRC leased area.

Thank you to David, Rob and Trevor.

A tie-up rail in the 5th Light Horse Regiment's training field - the Ziza Field - was also completed, meaning that the horses can be secured close-by during training breaks and also, visitors can safely say a big hello to them!

Nearer the end of July, we'll be bringing you news about the great sign for this field that the Maleny Mens Shed are working on completing in time for its official installation on Saturday 27th July.

The Gondoliers sparkles with Singers' verve

Gilbert and Sullivan's The Gondoliers has always been one of the duo's most popular comic operettas from its first production in 1889 when it became one of the longest running pieces of musical theatre ever, to the myriad professional, amateur and school productions of today.

Margaret Taylor's Maleny Singers production in the Community Centre does not disappoint. It bursts on the stage with energy, colour and the spirited singing of the women as they move about greeting each other in a Venetian piazza waiting eagerly for the arrival of the gondoliers, especially their heroes Giuseppe and Marco (Christopher Ward and Colin Dunn) who might just choose two of them as their brides.

Under Mrs Taylor's baton the company is supported by a 20-piece orchestra (leader Chrissy Davis) that never intrudes and provides some of the special experiences of the show.

One of the most important aspects of any G&S operetta is the complicated plot and the absolute necessity of being able to understand Gilbert's iconic wit and satire. In this production the audience could hear almost every word, especially so with Ian McMaster's Don Alhambra explaining the background twists and turns in his opening number 'Of that there is no shadow of doubt...'

Highlights of the production were the energy of the chorus, each one of whom entered into the spirit of the action; the quality voices of the three women, Sarah Jane Abbott (Casilda), Evalee Sharples, playing Gianetta, and Viera Keogh singing a spirited Tessa; the delicate quartet In a contemplative fashion; charming dances, and popular tenor Colin Dunn with what is arguably one of the best known of Sullivan's arias Take a pair of sparkling eyes.

It is on again this weekend - book at Maleny Information

Centre or trybooking.com for Saturday 22nd, 4pm or Sunday 2pm.

Who remembers the old country halls?

A chance hearing of a Mike McClellan song, Saturday Dance brought back memories of the Saturday dances and the local Community Country Halls, many of which now sit and slowly fall into neglect and are simply rotting away.

The Saturday dance was one of the most looked forward to events of the week. Many of the older halls had carbide lighting or lamps and music was not amplified as it is today, but the rafters still rang with the sound of music and the laughter of friends and sweethearts and the sight of the younger children well bedded under the seats.

Who would forget the suppers? And although alcohol was banned from such places there was always the big pots of tea - either white or black. Usually a cold bag could be found somewhere outside in the bushes the contents of which provided some sustenance.

No one could forget the old country hall and great country hospitality. All too soon it was time to head home to the milking!
